Aaron Paquette: Literacy, Truth and Reconciliation Alberta Culture Days

Saturday September 29, 1:00-3:30pm

Aaron Paquette is one of Canada's best-known First Nations Métis personalities. He is a bestselling award-winning author, an acclaimed painter and artist, an illustrator, goldsmith and cathedral stained glass artist.

The power of literacy is the power to discover stories. Words create worlds and for Aaron Paquette, words almost ended his story. He will share his inspiring journey to finding truth, asking audiences: What does reconciliation mean? Who is it for? How do we get there? He shares why the answers reveal the truth of Canada's identity and tell the story that shapes our lives.

300 Books to Read Before Kindergarten September-June

Share your love of reading with your little ones by reading 300 books with them before kindergarten! Register your child and pick up your first 100 books logbook from the main floor Reference Desk (starting September 4) and keep track of every book read together (until May 31). After every 100 books, return your logbook to the Reference Desk and pick up your next one until you've read 300 books! We'll celebrate at our next graduation ceremony in June!
